

CM launches solid waste management project in 7 zones

Private firm given contract to cover 86 divisions for eight years at a cost of ₹447 crore per year; it will install over 8,800 garbage bins

Updated - October 01, 2020 03:03 am IST - CHENNAI

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

New beginnings: Chief Minister Edappadi K. Palaniswami flagging off garbage collection e-vehicles and lorries at Island Grounds in Chennai on Wednesday .

Chief Minister Edappadi K. Palaniswami on Wednesday launched a solid waste management project to be carried out by Urbaser SA and Sumeet Facilities in seven zones of the Greater Chennai Corporation (GCC).

