

Chennai Corporation's zero waste plan will take off before year-end

The planned launch in December 2020 was delayed due to the pandemic

Published - June 12, 2021 12:08 am IST - CHENNAI

R SRIKANTH

Proper disposal: A waste segregation plant has been set up at the Perungudi dump yard by the Corporation.

The COVID-19 pandemic may have put a spanner in the Greater Chennai Corporation's ambitious 'Zero Waste Management' project but it is still on track to take off next year.

